 'Bright Moon City was particularly busy on Sundays. The continuous stream of players was more than double in number when compared to other days; it was overcrowded even in the private warehouse where the fees were more expensive.',
 'Could you please help-" Lin Li finally made his way to Suo Lan and was about to ask the pretty administrator for help in getting his mail item.',
 'But he was pushed away from the back before he could finish his sentence.',
 'Didn't you see the words outside clearly? This is a private warehouse, what is a low-level player like you doing here?" Those words came from a level forty-something warrior who was followed by a group of four or five players. He seemed to be the leader of their small team.',
 'After the warrior had spoken, the rest of the players expressed their discontent one after another. "Something's wrong with this low-level guy; he's coming here and taking up a space for nothing.",
 'Who knows. Maybe he thinks the rich are here and so would like to get some money for a potion to level up."',
 'Why not go to the auction house for money? That's where all the rich men are. If anyone happens to be in a good mood and throws some gold coins your way, you will never have to worry about not getting enough money for the level-up potion.',
 'Lin Li only glanced at these wasps, then once again calmly wedged his way through to reach Suo Lan. "Would you help me get the mail items posted yesterday?",
 'Sure, please wait."',
 'The onlookers watched as various mine ingots were being taken out of the private warehouse. There were the common mithril and thorium, and also rare adamantite and fine iron. The sheer unique to magical metals sparkled in the private warehouse, dazzling the eyes of the players. The commotion died down instantly, and only sounds of players swallowing their saliva could be heard in the private warehouse.',
 'The players had yet to shift their gazes away from the bulk of ingots when the pretty administrator took out another pile of stuff from the warehouse-over a hundred pieces of black dragon skin stacked neatly together. The fine and closely woven dragon scales were breathtakingly lucent under the sheen of the magical metals-this was genuine black dragon skin. It was the perfect combination of magical and physical defense. Gear made from the dragon skin was of a legendary scale at the very least. Hundreds of black dragon skin pieces meant hundreds of pieces of legendary gear at the very least!',
 'And this was not the end. Beneath the stack of black dragon skin were over twenty pieces of smelted divinity metals.',
 'The entire private warehouse seethed with excitement at the sight of these divinity metals.',
 'Look, these look like the legendary divinity metals!',
 'Look like? These\xa0',
 'the divinity metals. Oh, God! More than twenty pieces, did this low-level mage just rob a dragon?" The guy had guessed it half right, Lin Li had indeed raided a dragon's lair. But at the same time, while raiding the dragon's lair, he had finished off the Dragon of Destruction Azardas.',
 'There was no lack of professional blacksmiths in the crowd. No one knew the value of the divinity metals better than them.',
 'The properties of equipment made out of divinity metals might not stand out in the beginning, but the longer you use it and the higher the level you attain, the more its fearful growth characteristics would show-albeit slowly. Many professional blacksmiths had predicted on official forums that if a player began using equipment made out of divinity metals at level one, then when he reached level 70, the equipment could reach an epic level at the minimum even if it might not be an artifact!',
 'Was this beast intending to give anyone a way out at all, having over twenty divinity metals out at once?',
 'The players could only watch as Lin Li swept the twenty pieces of divinity metals into his bag, their expressions ones of those who had witnessed their wives entering a hotel with other guys.',
 'But then, Suo Lan retrieved a scroll from the warehouse yet again, and all life had escaped from the players' eyes. He was a beast capable of producing two pieces of epic equipment at ease, and in addition possessed over a hundred pieces of dragon skin and over twenty pieces of divinity metals. What else could he not do?',
 'However, everyone had a breakdown the time the scroll was handed over to Lin Li.',
 'The Wishes Spell! That is the scroll of Wishes!" only players who knew their stuff exclaimed as the scroll was passed.',
 'How is that possible! Did you see it correctly?',
 'It really is! That is really the scroll of Wishes!',
 'The private warehouse had just quieted down for a few minutes, but the appearance of the scroll threw the place into a frenzy again.',
 'Powerful" might be an understatement in this case. Having the scroll of Wishes meant the player could tell the System Lord one wish. As long as the wish was not again

 'Only Lin Li would know how he came to possess such near-demonic gift in magic. It probably had something to do with the attributes of the mage smurf-high levels of mental and intellectual abilities. It was all thanks to these demonic attributes that he could easily understand highly complex spells and arrange magical elements without effort as if he was born knowing it. He could recite any complex spell with ease just by hearing it once and learn the order of magic elements in the shortest time no matter how difficult they were.',
 'Andoino ceased teaching any new magic skills when Lin Li mastered the tenth elementary magic. Instead, he got him to practice the sequencing of the ten elements.',
 'Though tedious training made one lose interest quickly, Lin Li showed no signs of annoyance. He knew very well that despite being a terrible pharmacist with a nasty temper, old Andoino was undoubtedly an authoritative figure in the field of magic. His opinions might not be precise, but it was far better than having himself, an amateur fumbling about on his own.',
 'The tedious training continued for a month, until one morning.',
 'Like any other days after breakfast, Lin Li resumed his training on elemental sequencing.',
 'This was not the conventional way of magic training. Usually, the mage would start off with sequencing the magical elements, and then unleash the magic through reciting a spell. But Andoino had adopted a different approach in his teachings. He made Lin Li summon the magical elements and had them arranged by making use of Lin Li's mental strength. Instead of unleashing the magic through spell, he jumbled them up and made Lin Li go through the whole process repeatedly until his mental strength finally wore off.',
 'On other days, Andoino would keep himself busy in the pharmaceutical lab after breakfast. However, he stayed in his room that day and quietly watched Lin Li train. In fact, the latter was uncomfortable to know that someone was watching him, so he stopped and looked at the old mage as he asked, "Have you learned the formula of the Clarity Potion I taught you a few days ago?",
 '"Uh, not yet." Andoino turned red in embarrassment when asked about the Clarity Potion. Indeed, when compared to Lin Li's extraordinary gift in magic, he had nothing to show in regards to his talent in pharmaceuticals. Lin Li had demonstrated over ten times the making of a simple Clarity potion, but he still could not get a grasp on it till this day. In fact, he nearly caused an explosion in the lab just the day before. No matter how thick-skinned Andoino was, he blushed involuntarily at the mention of the topic.',
 '"Are you alright? Why haven't you been able to master it yet?" Lin Li's expression that was clearly one of someone who'd expected better from Andoino made the latter wish he had a hole to crawl into. "So, what are you waiting there for instead of going back to the lab? Do you need my demonstration again?",
 '"No, no, no, I'm fine, thank you.", Andoino rubbed his head awkwardly. After a few moments, he seemed to recall his goal. Putting on a serious face, he said, "Um... let's not talk about this today. I have something to tell you."',
 '"Oh?" They had been together for more than a month, yet this was the first time Lin Li saw Andoino serious. He could not help but be curious.',
 'They stepped out of the log cabin. Andoino thought for long while before asking Lin Li, "Do you know why I stopped teaching you new spells, and instead had you practice elemental sequencing?",
 '"No." Lin Li replied honestly. "I know nothing about magic anyway. I'll just practice whatever you ask me to, surely you won't harm me?",
 '"You kid have some conscience at least." Andoino nodded with satisfaction, a relieved smile on his aged face. "I have lived for over a hundred years and have never seen anyone as gifted as you. You are a monster, kid. I think even the legendary Geresco couldn't have been more gifted than you are."',
 '"Lin Li, you're kidding me right? What are you talking about? I've never imagined held a gift like yours. He knew more or less from the old man who Geresco was. He was the most powerful mage in the Dark Ages, the strongest of mortals nearest to the divine. The God of Mages who single-handedly defeated the entire Magic Legion of the High Elves. Lin Li could never have imagined his own magical gifts to be this strong.',
 '"But don't get too excited just yet." Seeing how bewildered Lin Li looked, the old mage chortled. "Talent is one thing, but achievements are another. From what I see, you are inferior to Geresco in at least two ways. First of all, you are not focused enough. In magic, only people who are absolutely focused can achieve real success.

Although Lady Zhao Xuan pled to the Emperor that her father was innocent, the evidence was overwhelming. In his fury, the Emperor threw her into the cold palace.',

  'During this time, Emperor Yan of Zhou went out to visit other kingdoms and planned to return in a few months.',
  'If Lady Zhao Xuan were to stay, she and her son Zhou Xuanji would both perish.',
  'His heart ached as he saw his mother in this life crying so miserably. He raised his small hand and touched Lady Zhao Xuan's face and said, "Mother, don't cry..."',
  'The physicality of people in this world was stronger than that of humans on Earth, which was why the two-year-old could open his mouth and speak.',
  'Zhou Xuanji usually kept his sentences short, so as not to give those around him a shock.',
  'In the Royal Palace, those who were outstanding will be persecuted.',
  'Lady Zhao Xuan sobbed even harder after hearing what he said.',
  'Lady, there is a huge river ahead which converges with the Huang Chuan River. If we place the young prince in it, there may be a slimmer of hope for him to survive,' the old general uttered solemnly.',
  'Throw me down!',
  'Adrenaline rushed through his body. This old man was indeed ruthless.',
  'After she had heard the old man, Lady Zhao Xuan took off her necklace, which had a small wooden bead as its pendant.',
  'The thumb-sized bead was just an ordinary bead.',
  'She put the necklace on his neck and kissed his little face, and said, "My son, this wooden bead was born with you. It is also a symbol for you as a prince of the Zhou Empire. When the Emperor finds out the truth in the future, he will send someone to find you..."',
  'After she finished speaking, her right hand pressed lightly on his body. A semi-transparent golden light appeared and enveloped him.',
  'She carried him out of the carriage, looking down.',
  'Below them was a valley as broad as a thousand feet. The river water was rushing down ferociously. Water slapped the rocks by the riverside and threw countless droplets of water into the air.',
  'Any ordinary person would surely die horribly from such a fall.',

  'This was a wooden hut. It only had enough space for a wooden bed and a wooden table.',

  '"My will is not independent. I am merely a support program you created, solely intended to nurture the Sword Owner," the digital voice replied. Zhou Xuanji was stunned as he heard this.',
  'What the?!',
  'So that's why!',
  'Zhou Xuanji came to a realization and was immediately excited about it.',
  'He was a programmer in his previous life. While he was playing a single-player fantasy cultivation game, he felt that becoming strong and leveling up was too difficult. Therefore, he created the Supreme Legendary Sword program.',
  'Yes.',
  'This was a cheating program!',
  'It allowed him to randomly pick any of the swords available in the game because the character he was playing was a Swordmaster.',

 'Someone might ask, why was he here?',
 'Of course, it was for survival.',
 'Okay, let's clarify.',
 'Telecom Business Hall partnered with Vivo phones to do a promotion over the summer holidays. Workers were paid 60 yuan an hour to stand outside the door in a puppet c',

 'ecause the temperature outside was over 30 degrees, he would receive a 10 yuan per hour bonus. This added up to a total of 70 yuan per hour.',
 'After Lu Zhou heard about the salary, he did not even hesitate before accepting the job.',
 'Analyzing it logically, if on average he worked five hours a day, that amounted to 350 yuan a day. If he worked thirty days a month, that would add up to 10,500 yuan.',
 'Who would have thought that a six-figure job was actually located at the entrance of the Telecom Business Hall?',
 'Of course, Lu Zhou knew that even the rich and powerful Huawei could not afford to do promotions every day, much less a company like Vivo.',
 'However, even if he only worked for a week, he would still earn 2600 yuan.',
 'Just as Lu Zhou got so bored that he started to count the number of leaves on a parasol tree, a fat and dark-skinned man who was wiping the sweat off his face walked',

 'The fat man's name was Wu Dahai, and like Lu Zhou, he also majored in mathematics at the University of Jin Ling. However, Wu Dahai was two years older. He was in his',

 'He was actually scared that the guy was going to get a heat stroke.',

 '"Yeah, go and do your own stuff."',
 'Wu Dahai saw how firm Lu Zhou was, so he did not persist.',
 'Actually, Wu Dahai felt lucky.',
 'After all, it was difficult to find someone who would be willing to work in this hot weather. There were quite a lot of part-time workers, but most were not as hardwo',

 'With what remained consciousness that he had, he heard the sound of footsteps hurrying towards him and shouting coming from the Telecom Business Hall.',
